More Information

- Explore cutting-edge technology trends
 - Network with industry leaders
1. Arrive on time
 2. Bring your registration ID

Outcome:

CO2: Create Web pages using HTML 5 and CSS

Conclusion:

From this experiment I learned how to create a simple yet structured web page using HTML and CSS. I got hands-on experience with basic elements like tables, lists, images, and hyperlinks. I also explored how to use the HTML5 audio and video tags to embed media content. Additionally, I learned about applying inline CSS using the ID tag to style elements individually. This helped me understand how HTML and CSS work together to design and organize content on a webpage while also improving its visual appeal.
